

Brad Davies

Imagine investigating a murder to later find out someone else is the victim.

Imagine dealing with a Psychopath, no remorse, no feeling and devoid of the knowledge of right and wrong.

Appointed to investigate the killing of a young woman in a secluded park, Detective Inspector Ricayla Kelly soon learns this is no ordinary case. As the killer taunts her in a game of catch-me-if-you-can. As bodies start to mount up and leads run dry, Kelly has to dig deep only to find a system where everybody is a victim, nobody can be trusted.