

NEVER TO BE SEEN AGAIN

Donna Davies

There is a new game
I'm sure you know
The name of the game
Is Pokémon go

Chasing this yellow creature
This illusion of imagery
Taking me far and wide
To cafes, parks and the old gum tree..

Great distances I walk and walk
In this mighty quest
Meeting new friends along the way
I capture and conquer to be the best

This game has got me firmly caught
In its clutches of mayhem and
My life is slowly slipping away –
Into its vortex I descend...
Never to be seen
Again...
