

12 February 1898

FATAL FALL OFF A CLIFF.

SYDNEY, Friday.

A young woman named Nellie Dunn, whose parents reside in Clarke-street, Richmond, Victoria, when walking on the cliffs at Waverley to-day, was seen to stagger and fall over. She struck a ledge of rock and rebounded into the sea. The Government steamer was sent round to the spot and recovered her dead body in the surf.